COURSE TEXTBOOK

Diversity Consciousness: Opening Our Minds to People, Cultures, and Opportunities, 4th Edition, Richard D. Bucher, Pearson Prentice Hall ISBN 9780321919069

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Cultural Diversity in the United States offers a platform for discussing the many kinds of diversity we encounter in the United States today. This course will attempt to dispel the notion of diversity as merely a synonym for racial or ethnic issues. Through the study of diversity consciousness and training we will attempt to better understand prejudices and discrimination in the United States. As we explore various types of diversity including racial, political, sexual, gender, religious, ethnic and any others that arise from our discussions, we will examine both the positive and negative experiences that have arisen from laws, actions, cultures, feelings, and protests in the United States.

COURSE OBJECTIVES AND OUTCOMES

After completing this course, the student will be able to:

1. define what diversity means in the United States;
2. explain how the benefits of Diversity Education and Training may help reduce the number of prejudicial incidents in the future;
3. describe and identify personal and social barriers to success and how they are related to diversity;
4. identify multiple types of prejudice and discrimination that exist(ed) in the United States;
5. explain how prejudice and discrimination have impacted our world;
6. define cultural encapsulation, enculturation, classism, and sexism, and cite examples of their occurrence in American workplaces and schools;
7. describe the power of language;

8. demonstrate how communication and culture are interrelated and how miscommunication has been the cause of more than one war;
9. select and employ effective strategies for inclusive communication, the value of a team based approach to leadership, as well as conflict management skills and the ability to think critically.

GRADING STANDARDS

Here is the meaning behind the grades I assign to your papers (you should use these statements to determine how you might work toward a higher grade):

Students will be assessed on accuracy of the factual material represented in their respective answers, as well as, creativity and detailed descriptions where applicable. Each assignment has a point value and specific requirements. To earn full credit the student must cover all points asked by the question and provide adequate supporting materials, references and details. Before answering, carefully examine what the question is asking you. If the question asks you for your opinion be sure to include reasons, experiences and backup information. For essay type questions or papers you need to create a well organized paper with a beginning, middle and end. Be sure to start with a solid introduction and thesis statement and then support it with details and explanations that you demonstrate throughout your essay. Be sure not to be too general in your responses and be sure to cite, quote and reference any information you obtain from other sources.
